This Week in Art

Issue number: 34 Friday 12th July 2024

Year 1 did an excellent job trying out some cartoon drawings for a character to go in their Fantasy Vehicle they have designed.
Year 2 created some wonderful artwork inspired by Edward-Saidi Tingatinga as part of their mark making and migration topic.
Year 5 were excited to begin making their Rio and London inspired clay tile - to be painted next week!

The Great Heber Netball Tournament

Yesterday East Dulwich showed its true community spirit with the annual Heber Netball tournament. It was lovely to see children of all ages, Year 1 up to Year 12, involved and having fun playing against their parents. It warms your heart to see everyone coming together, competing and enjoying themselves. However, there is a shock winner to be announced in the full report from Mr Neve-Dunn next week. For now, here are some photos!

Book Returns

Please have a rummage at home for any school reading books (Monster Phonics, book corner books and library books) and return them by Friday 19th July. It is essential all reading books are returned so all children can enjoy a fully stocked book corner when they move into their new classrooms. Thank you!

5K Trip to the Royal Observatory

To end our topic on the Earth, Sun and Moon with a bang, 5K visited the Royal Observatory at Greenwich. We got to see the solar system up close with a planetarium show and also had an interactive workshop on the movement of the Earth in relation to the sun and moon. We even got a bit of time to take a look at the Greenwich Meridian line and work out locations east and west of the line.

Summer Art Competition

The Art Room needs a new WELCOME sign and I thought it would be a lovely idea to hold an optional art competition over the summer in which children could design one for me.

They can work independently or in groups and can use any media they like. The size of the space is approximately 85cm high by 45cm wide and I have attached a photo of where the sign will go.

They could create their poster on cardboard, paper, material or anything suitable that will fit in that space.

It just needs to include the word: WELCOME!

If they have any questions regarding this, the children can ask me before the end of term.

I will collect entries up until Friday 13th September 2024.

Many thanks and good luck!

Mrs Coulson, Art Lead
